

Part Time Work – Videographers

We are keen to employ videographers for the purposes of filming and editing our events and lectures. Work may also involve taking down written notes of texts and resources mentioned by speakers. The work will be on an ad-hoc basis and payment will be up to R150.00 per hour depending on qualifications and experience.

Attention to detail, being on time and meeting deadlines are essential.

Filming:

The camera equipment is provided. You will be required to set up in advance of any event, be attentive to picture and sound quality, ensure the safe transfer and storage of footage, and make sure the equipment is stored and charging at the end of a session.

Editing:

You will need to edit on your own computer and editing software, and produce work consistent with the Centre's current template. A brief and assets will be provided.

If you are interested please send your CV, contact details, software experience, links to any video work you may have online, and times when you are available to info@tshisimani.org.za.
